200 Protest $$$$ Of NASA

NASA AREA LAND OWNERS LISTEN TO PURCHASE PRICE COMPLAINTS

Land Owners Body Formed

More than 200 residents of the NASA test site area complained Monday morning to the board of supervisors that they are not receiving just remuneration for their property and named a seven-member committee to work in their behalf.

The mass meeting elected Dr. James Fargason of Flatop as president of the Mississippi Test Facility Land Owners Committee. Named to serve with him were Asa McQueen, Sylvester Moran, Oscar Gehl, August Holden, Cody Isbell and Charles Aker, Negro. Mrs. Isbell will be secretary and Cornelius J. Ledner agreed to assist as attorney.

Dr. Fargason called on those present to sign petitions pledging that they will make "no agreement to relinquish our property to this government agency (Army Corps of Engineers acting for NASA) without fair and just compensation." The documents further call on Senators Stennis and Eastland and Rep. W. M. Colmer to do all within their power to see just settlement is made. Petitions are to be returned to the MTFLO meeting at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday at Logtown School.

McQueen told the supervisors and assemblage which jammed the courtroom he has every reason to believe, on good authority which he could not divulge at present, that the people are not being offered the amount the appraisers put on their property. (EDITOR'S NOTE: See separate story.) He said Senator Stennis had assured a "reputable Bay St. Louis businessman that none of the land should start at less than $250 an acre" but contended this was not the case.

Isbell, whose grandmother was a full-blooded Cherokee Indian, asserted that the people of the Logtown area were getting the same deal from the government the Cherokees did, first in Georgia, then in the Oklahoma strip, which he recalled, it agreed to buy at a just price and never followed through.

Isbell said he had over $42,000 invested on 240 acres and was told by the Engineers that the land was worth nothing as a stock farm after they took it over but he could use it for timber production. Such a conversion, he argued, would require money which was not feasible. He said final appraisal of his property in the buffer zone was completed Jan. 31 and he finally went May 23 to the Engineers' real estate office here to ask what he was going to be paid. They told him $21,000 was the final price. He inquired about condemnation proceedings and was told those would not be started in his area for two years. As a result, he contended, his hands are tied.

P. J. Slay, who made the opening statement to the supervisors for the delegation, said that after the meeting last fall at Logtown most people "became resigned to the idea of giving up our homes and land, and relying on what we were told by the government, we have confidently expected at least a just and fair price for our property." However, since negotiations have started, no one is being paid too much, he continued, and with the worry and trouble of moving, "it is strong public opinion that no one is being paid enough." He charged that the appraisals are "completely unequal and unfair" in that some get more than their property is worth and others less.

Slay proposed three methods of attack: publicity, political pressure in Washington, and not signing any agreement to accept with the government until fair value is assured. He called on the supervisors to lend strong support.

"If the federal government wants to spend millions of dollars to shoot somebody to the moon, that's OK, but I don't want to be a victim of it," declared August Holden of Napoleon. He said he hadn't been able to get anything out of the Engineers' office, asserting, "It's time for every red-blooded American to stand up for his support." (Cont. on Page 5.)

The need for a goal in life, regardless of what it is, was emphasized by State Tax Collector William Winters in an address to the graduating class of Hancock North Central School last Thursday night.

He urged the young people to work toward that goal and not be dependent on the state or country for support.

Janet Shaw and William Lee led their class with highest honors for which they received medals. Graduating with high honors were Donald Koenen, Carrie Mae Hardy and Donna Fay Necaise while honors went to Sarah Kathleen Lee, Grace Elaine Lee and Judith Grace Lee.

Medals were awarded to O. J. Two Elected to N. Central Faculty

Ezell Lee, now employed in St. Tammany Parish schools, was elected by the county board of education Saturday as head of education Saturday as head football coach for Hancock North Central School on the recommendation of J. D. Penton, new superintendent. Also named to the coaching staff was Jimmy Gatewood, recent graduate of Louisiana Tech. Both will teach social studies.

School lunchroom staff and janitors also were appointed and Donna Fay Necaise, May honor graduate at North Central, was approved as secretary to County Superintendent K. G. McCarty to succeed Inez Favre who resigned to take a clerical post at the county health office.

Penton reported on his investigation of securing lighting for the football field at the school and said he was convinced the job could be done for less than $2,000.

Appraisal Followed, Col. Says

Col. D. A. Raymond, chief of the Army Corps of Engineers' Mobile district, told the Echo yesterday that land owners in the Hancock County test site are being offered the price for their property at which it has been appraised.

He said the people in both the fee area and buffer zone "are being offered, give or take two per cent, the amount recommended by qualified Mississippi professional appraisers."

Appraisers assigned to the space project, according to the local real estate office of the corps, are George Wedemeyer, O. H. Burns, T. L. Carraway, Jr., Jack Mann, W. Merle Mann, Leon T. Rogers, Jr., George Orr, E. W. Trussell, Earl Hoesy, Gus Noble, Palmer Roy McGowan and Henry Toler, forestry consultant.

One more purchase agreement, for 30 acres owned by Elvie Robinson, was signed Friday but there have been no additional negotiations completed this week, the office reported.

Sheriff-Tax Collector Change On Tues. Ballot

The constitutional amendment which would separate the offices of county sheriff and tax collector will hold top interest when voters go to the polls Tuesday.

An open forum on the proposed amendment will be conducted by the Jaycees at 7:30 p.m. Monday at the Jaycee Hall in an effort to acquaint the public with facts involved. Sheriff Gerald V. Price will be on hand to answer questions.

Passage of the amendment would give the state legislature the right to separate the two offices which now are combined in the counties which it deems necessary and would permit a sheriff to succeed himself in office when the office of tax collector is separated.

Only one office is being contested in the Democratic primary—that being for the newly created 5th Congressional District seat which finds veteran incumbent William M. Colmer opposed by V. O. Campbell.

Leo W. Seal, Jr., secretary of the County Democratic Committee, reminds all qualified voters to have with them poll tax receipts for the last two years in order to vote on the Congressional candidates unless they have exemption certificates. Polls will be open from 7 a.m. until 6 p.m.

Election officials with peace and returning officers listed last are:

Beat 1: Ansley—Mrs. Roy Skinner, Mrs. Coburn Lader, August Moran, Charlie Hamner; Napoleon—Mrs. Earl Holden, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Dawsey, Dave Hoyer; Logtown—Mrs. C. E. Martin, Barbara Ann McArthur, George R. Summers, Henry Ouis; Pearlinton—Mrs. C. Charles Russ, Mrs. W. B. Johnson, Mrs. Harlan Dean, Robert J. Dahon; Gansville—L. E. North Central Trouble Spot

School Board Calls In DA

A pupil-patron vs. faculty storm which erupted last week at Hancock North Central School when two seniors failed to qualify for graduation caused the county board of education Saturday to ask for a complete investigation of the "disturbance" by District Attorney Boyce Holleman.

The board discussed the situation behind closed doors for one hour and 45 minutes after which its action was reported to the public and press.

John Lader, former P-TA officer at the school, apologized to the board for interrupting the commencement program Thursday night but contended the two boys who had worked 12 years with their class should have been given a chance to graduate with them after second examinations on the course they failed.

Trustee E. P. Orte of Beat 5 maintained that the boys went about the whole matter the wrong way. "It sets a precedent that if you don't pass you whip the professor," he remarked in reference to one alleged incident.

Trustee S. P. Powell of Beat 4 had called for the closed meeting at the onset and then, according to the minutes read by County Superintendent K. G. McCarty, moved for the DA to be called in on the matter. Alton D. Keller of Beat 2 seconded.

During this portion of the meeting, the board approved 3-0 a substitute motion to defer until its next meeting consideration of asking Billy Dale Sills, social studies instructor to resign. Sills had given a re-examination on a required history course to the two senior boys involved and there was concern voiced over the wide divergence in their grades. Orte offered the substitute motion, seconded by Keller. Those two, along with Charles B. Murphy, board president, voted for it while abstaining were Powell, who earlier had moved to request Sills' resignation, and Lugie Necaise of Beat 3, who seconded that.

Sheriff Gerald V. Price was called into the session at 9:55 a.m. and remained with the board about 15 minutes. When the meeting was opened up at 10:45 a.m., Price returned, apparently to keep order in event tempers sizzled past the boiling point. Murphy then called on Walter J. Phillips, attorney for the board, to outline events leading to the trustees' actions. It appeared that Orte and Murphy had called Phillips last Monday night about the re-examination for two seniors at North Central and on powers of the board. He advised them any member or group of members could investigate anything pertaining to the operation of a school, counseled the next night that a meeting Wednesday morning had no official status since insufficient notice could be given.

A conference followed Wednesday morning at the school with Murphy, Orte, Powell, McCarty and Phillips attending during which the group conferred individually with Leo R. Rouse, superintendent at North Central; J. C. Harrell, high school principal; Sills, and Mrs. G. S. Kennedy, custodian of records. They went over records of the school and both examinations given the boys. As a result it was recommended to Rouse that the records not be changed since the necessary graduation credits were not there, that the second exam marks be disallowed and that he ask the boys to make up the lacking credit at summer school so they might get their diploma after that if they passed. Rouse, Phillips said, indicated he would accept that advice.

Necaise inquired who had recommended Wednesday's gathering. Orte replied that two teachers had asked their names not be used or they would resign, adding one already had resigned, while Phillips observed that late the previous week he had been informed of threats made in connections with pupils falling and immediately notified McCarty who said he would investigate. Necaise persisted with his inquiry on the start of the investigation and McCarty retorted he felt the letter of resignation he received last Tuesday from Louis Brooks, librarian and English teacher, was sufficient and he read it.

The Beat 3 trustee then opined that Brooks was "wrong" in saying they should not be given a second chance when it's done all over the state of Mississippi.

John Lader argued that the purpose of giving seniors examinations two weeks ahead of the rest was so they could have a second chance if they lacked credits. He said the boys had taken up the matter with Harrell, passed some inopportune remarks, and then with Rouse who said if Sills would give them a re-examination they could take it. Mid-way through the second test, he charged Harrell came into the room, demanded an apology and paddled each boy five times. Lader objected that after the boys apologized and passed the test, the board had no right to get into it. He claimed that 10 at Harrison Central took second exams and this had been past policy at North Central, one pupil taking a test three times the year before last.

Charging that the board got involved because of two faculty members who did not teach the boys to start with, Lader said an injustice had been done the people of the North Central district.

"I think the biggest injustice you did was antagonizing these (Cont. on Page 5.)

Gulfview Principal Oren Seal, paid a special compliment to Emmett LaFontaine, only student in school who finished the 8th grade without being absent or tardy. The P-TA also came in for praise and thanks for the good work this school year. Darlene Rinehart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Rinehart of U. S. 90, was salutatorian. A party followed in the lunchroom for the graduates and their families.

A wedding of interest here will take place in New Orleans June 2 when Miss Jacqueline Ann McSpadden, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Masson of Lakeshore, will be married to Robert Anthony Acosta, Mr. Masson is ill in hospital in Biloxi but hopes to be well enough to attend the wedding at St. Christophers Church.

Misses Marcella Schwartz,

Brenda LaFontaine, Louise Green, Sharon Williams, Joy Shimmer, Peggy Moran and Melba McArthur looked just adorable in their party dresses as they danced at the program and secured the people at graduation.

Our thanks to Hummingbird conductor, C. C. McDonald for his courtesies Tuesday after Mrs. Kenneth McCarty took her students to Gulfport. Mothers who helped were Madeline John Hamilton, Floyd Green, Ray Shimmer, George Lachick, Lawrence LaFontaine, Ernest Owens, John Fricks, George O'Farrell and Malcolm Green.

Congratulations to Miss Virginia Thomas former Gulfview student, who was presented the American Legion Award, along with a class mate Margo Jacobs during graduation at St. Joseph's Academy. Virginia was also made a member of Alpha Honor Society, co-editor of the Sea Sprite, official scorekeeper of Athletic Club, secretary of Student Council, president of Class club, secretary of Sodality of Blessed Mother, co-chairman of the CSMC and made a trip to the University of Notre Dame in connection with these duties.

The offshore oil drilling has discontinued and moved over to Bours, La. Herbert De Gracious and David Stouffler transferred with them, coming home at their long days off.

Work on the home of Jake and Odessa Schwartz is going along but would do better if his neighbors would have an old fashioned home raising. The fitness of their first born has kept them strapped for money.

Polly At Waveland

Most people upon shooting off their overlarge mouths may remedy the situation by merely eating their words. In the case of your reporter, it's a somewhat different matter. On frequent occasions when quoted as to how one manages to fill a column week after week, I seem to recall saying broadly something to the effect that it isn't one's difficult as just about everybody does almost the same things depending on the pattern of daily living of numerous residents a column could be written combining facts already known and a little imagination. Suddenly I'm faced with this short-voiced editor who has the above or I produce, having been confined to the old homestead almost the entire weekend due to a strep throat, accompanying aches and pains further complicated by the fact that even the thought of using the telephone sends agonizing shivers through the frame. . . . I'm stuck with the immediate family are limited to groans, dirty looks and in desperation, type-written messages - a sure in affairs which everyone seems to be enjoying immensely, with the exception of yours truly -

So far the present will take a few days and the deluge of mail will come. I'll be back to you as to where we are.

Predictions of Things Past

We'll begin with yesterday - an area with certainty that neighbors from the area arrived on schedule and with reasonable accuracy that Lorraine and George Penfith, Ramon and David (Nahlgren), the Nicholson Avenue Los-cos, (Mr. Penfith was there here), the Alexander Jenevelis, Ian Pedarres, Clarence Marquis, E. E. Steindles, Lennie Rupp, Zedda and the Walthams, John Wansstead, A. H. Stahls and many other regulars were present in our area. . . . We can even be a bit more specific. In some cases. . . . Winnie and Jack Holm, sort of a perfect, naturally, direct at Lorraine on Saturday and Haverly's Sunday, at the same time. The Armand Searps and the Toca families (Mickaloh) dinner together Saturday night. . . . and could have been joined by Mary and the McCall, if they happened to be in the area. . . . Carver and the small Kirschenheuters might have spent Sunday at the home - Armand pushing up her water skiing. . . . and in doubt that the Toca could have been found in a rocking chair behind Bordere Fishing Camp Saturday taking in the cool breezes awaiting the return of daughter Gretchen, husband Clem Sert and their guests from a fishing trip. The above mentioned Herbigs, and this we are sure with no fear of contradiction, had a houseful of company last Saturday and Sunday - par for the course.

As for the rest of the weekenders, the minority who came over for a weekend at the Ashad, crabbed, swam, barbecued and drank cases of beer - the others attacked their already weedless lawns with zeal and determination, pausing only for hurried meals, their back to the rails, line and mowers! This could go on and on but we'll save further ramblings for a similar occasion - however far in the future - and get around to passing on a little factual information.

Romance Report

All the world loves a lover, at least so we're told so we're happy to report that all of our local romances are apparently moving along smoothly. Ella Faye and Buddy Dufour made a handsome couple attending graduation at Bay High Friday night - Helen Nadel and Bill Searpsman still enjoy a mutual liking for German cuisine and each other's company and Bill Goelzenleuchter even drives all the way to the Crescent City to see that Gayle Webb arrives at her job on time!

Dr. Mayfield is the proudest new car owner in town. . . . Jim Gifted her with a lovely blue model last week -

Add house hunters - Ben and Lauren Souter are looking forward to the birth of their first child come November.

Communion Class

Many were up bright and early Sunday for first communion at 8 a.m. mass at St. Clare's. Following the service a breakfast honoring communicants and their parents was served at the parish hall. The Sodality presented each child with a holy water container. Father O'Brien, Jimmy Lagasse and Cecile and Mary Margaret Turcotte were on hand to welcome the guests. Father O'Brien expressed his appreciation to the Turcotte sisters for their invaluable assistance to him as new priest in the parish.

One of the largest post-communion parties was the barbecue given by Ann Langley and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Jenkins, honoring Roland and Gill Langley, both members of the class. Guests included their paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. David Barnhill, who drove from Jennings, La. for the ceremony; Maise and Ducre Bourgeois, Bobbie and Sonnie Thorning and children, George, Russell and Barbara Ann; Audrey (Mrs. Bill) Cobb, her mother-in-law, Mrs. Edwin Cobb of Biloxi and Audrey's children, Christy, Sandra, Cathy and Sharon; Pat Olson, who leaves today to join husband Richard in Abilene, Texas, and daughters Jeannie, Tina and Dina; and Ed Ruhl.

The Andrew Bousons returned from their recent Washington trip with vivid accounts of a personal interview with President Kennedy and his autographed picture to display to friends.

Belated, but none the less sincere, birthday greetings to one of our favorite gentlemen, Clem Penrose, who appears to be maybe fiftyish, but believe it or not celebrated his 81st birthday last week. . . . We hear that one of his gifts was a very expensive Stenson screw, but he remains partial to his most becoming plantation headgear, while the new hat reposes in splendor in his closet.

Animal Notes

Kittens anyone? The May again and Abigail has produced her annual litter - one black, white and grey, one yellow tiger stripe and a calico - These cuddly little bits of fur are available FREE just as soon as they're weaned which should be in about three weeks. . . . If there are any cat lovers in the reading public, please open your hearts and give one of the kittens a good home (the calico only goes if you'll take his or her brother or sisters. . .)

Glad to hear that this time Thelma Landry is really out of the hospital. . . . she's much improved, but must remain in bed for four to six weeks. Miss Olive Vogelberg is another Wavelander hospitalized in Hancock General, she's suffering from pneumonia.

Majorie Clark, who joined husband Dick here two weeks ago, loves the coast and their new home - one unfortunate note, one Mark was hospitalized with ebullient tonsils last week, but is good as new - even has the doctor's permission to swim again. Ray Rasmussen would probably be dancing with glee if she weren't afraid the night might break another bone - she was finally freed of her last cast Saturday. . . . she must wear a brace on the wrist that was crushed and a bandage on the right arm, but is able to do a host of important tasks such as feeding herself, etc. Betty Younger has also been quite ill. . . . however, she recovered sufficiently from

Licenses

Applications of local interest for marriage licenses issued during the last week by Circuit Clerk Lamar Olin were as follows:

Ramsey Joseph Boudreau, Manire, and Leona Ann Treasday, Bay St. Louis; Gerald E. Roy Freeman of Bay St. Louis; Elison Ann Lytle of Waveland; Elzie B. Cox of Kessler Air Force Base and Linda Frances Lizana of Fenwick; Carlos Ray Pachen of Pearlman and Barbara Jean Jenkins of St. Louis, La.

Complaint of the Week

This is a doozie, (with due apologies to Hazel) a friend tell us that the most recent thefts have been of garbage cans, of all things - and they're even taking them away full of trash. . . . honestly???? No further comment necessary!

Bay Side of the News

Birthday greetings to our good friend Hugo Satterlee - we're behind the times as always as he celebrated at a large family dinner on May 20 although he officially became 69 on the following day. Mrs. Mae Shore and brother Lee Lowe are adding a lovely porch to their summer home. Clabornes Ladner and Norman Bendigo had ideas of combining business and pleasure in their latest hobby - raising honey bees - don't know how they're faring business wise, but it hasn't been much pleasure as both are nursing painful stings from their pets. . . . Clabornes was even forced to remove his wedding ring with a hacksaw blade after being stung on his finger. May we suggest hamsters, perhaps? Not too lucrative, but prolific and they don't bite!

Get well wishes to Joe Tacon, who underwent surgery in Hancock General last Wednesday. . . . daughter Jane took a few days off from her job in New Orleans to be with her father; Louis Jacobl was one of his many hospital room visitors - it's good to see Octave Delph up and about once more although pretty daughter Emily did an excellent job of keeping things in order at the store in his absence.

Yet another get well wish goes to Bertha (Mrs. Warren) Hale reported to be recovering satisfactorily after surgery in Gulfport memorial last Friday.

Grace Bordages accompanied by sister-in-law, Belle Peterson, drove to Hattiesburg to pick up son Buddie Wilson and his effects from the University of Southern Mississippi Tuesday. . . . enroute they visited Mrs. James McCurdy, mother of the late Jean Keith who had many friends in this area.

Slight Help

Some help may be in store for the property owners in Hancock County's NASA test facility's area if House Resolution 11737 becomes law.

Already many have found that the booming prices for property in the adjoining areas of our county and Pearl River County will cause them a financial loss. Under long standing court decisions we feel that this is unavoidable, just as we know of no way to legally pay for the emotional distress many of the long time residents will suffer just as the families of our national guard unit suffered when ordered to active duty.

But in addition, under present law, when residents of the area have to move they have to pay the cost of moving and such is not considered in the price paid for their property. Paragraph 14 of H. R. 11737 would change this and authorize NASA's administrator, or his designee, to pay up to 25 percent of the fair value of the property acquired in the area for "expenses and losses and damages incurred... as a direct result of moving themselves, their families, and their possessions."

This bill was reported out favorably by the House Committee on Science and Astronautics and presumably will be voted on favorably by that body. Nevertheless, we strongly recommend that interested Hancock County residents contact their representative, Hon. William M. Colner, and their senators, Hon. John Stennis and Hon. James Eastland, urging them to push for passage of this bill.

It may be only a few drops in the bucket compared to the loss, financial and otherwise, that some families will suffer, but it will be some help particularly to those who decided to move their houses rather than sell them to the government.

Letters to The Editor

The following is a letter sent to Mississippi's two senators and to the 6th district representative, Route 1, Piquette, Mississippi May 24, 1962

Dear Sir:

Relative to land acquisition by the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers for the NASA in the buffer zone of the test site in Hancock County, Mississippi, I applied for an early appraisal and negotiation on my property holdings in the area. My request was ignored, my appraisal was recently completed, and yesterday, May 23, I had my first conference with the negotiators.

Returning to my personal problem, I own 300 acres, 200 of which are in excellent improved pasture, and 100 in timberland. All of the land is fenced and cross fenced. I have two good artesian wells. There are three dwelling houses on my property, two barns, two dairy barns, and sheds to make a total of 12 buildings.

The offer made me yesterday by the Corps of Engineers' negotiator for all of my buildings (which they will destroy), the improvements, and for the perpetual easement that the government is seeking in the amount of $37,500. This offer to me is ridiculous and absurd. According to the scale of values the land has been established in the adjacent test area the three dwellings that I have should come close to $47,500.

Beginning at a stake set 6.50 chains West of the Northeast corner of the NE 1/4 of the SW 1/4 of Section 8, Township 9 North, Range 14 West, running thence South 14.00 chains thence North 5.32 chains thence East 1.32 chains to the place of beginning containing 5.17 acres and being a part of the NE 1/4 of the SW

200 acres improved pasture land at $250 per acre 50,000.00
100 acres of timberland at $100 per acre 10,000.00
1 Artesian well 2,000.00
1 Artesian well 1,500.00
Total Value 63,500.00

All that I am asking for is a fair deal. I do not ask for my appraisal as listed above, but I certainly do ask for a figure closer to my stated value than the offer of $37,500.00 the government has made me.

I respectfully remind you that if the scale of value that is being established in the buffer zone with the negotiator's offer to me setting the precedent is followed throughout the area, a great number of these good people who own small properties and have never been in more than average financial condition are facing complete ruin.

Sincerely yours,
J. F. FARGASON, M.D.

Letters to The Editor
The following is a letter sent to Mississippi's two senators and to the 6th district representative, Route 1, Piquette, Mississippi May 24, 1962

Dear Sir:

Relative to land acquisition by the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers for the NASA in the buffer zone of the test site in Hancock County, Mississippi, I applied for an early appraisal and negotiation on my property holdings in the area. My request was ignored, my appraisal was recently completed, and yesterday, May 23, I had my first conference with the negotiators.

Returning to my personal problem, I own 300 acres, 200 of which are in excellent improved pasture, and 100 in timberland. All of the land is fenced and cross fenced. I have two good artesian wells. There are three dwelling houses on my property, two barns, two dairy barns, and sheds to make a total of 12 buildings.

The offer made me yesterday by the Corps of Engineers' negotiator for all of my buildings (which they will destroy), the improvements, and for the perpetual easement that the government is seeking in the amount of $37,500. This offer to me is ridiculous and absurd. According to the scale of values the land has been established in the adjacent test area the three dwellings that I have should come close to $47,500.

Beginning at a stake set 6.50 chains West of the Northeast corner of the NE 1/4 of the SW 1/4 of Section 8, Township 9 North, Range 14 West, running thence South 14.00 chains thence North 5.32 chains thence East 1.32 chains to the place of beginning containing 5.17 acres and being a part of the NE 1/4 of the SW

1/4 of Section 8, Township 9 North, Range 14 West, Hancock County, Mississippi.
You are summoned to appear before the Chancery Court of the County of Hancock, in said State, on the SECOND Monday of JUNE A. D. 1962 to defend the suit NO. 8861 in said Court of FRANK B. KLEIN, SR., and CLAUDIA A. KLEIN.
The same being a suit to quiet and confirm complainant's title to said land above described wherein you are a defendant.
This 8th day of MAY A. D. 1962.

OPERATION VERSUS SENIORITY IN CONGRESS

When the Ingalls Co. was about to lose a multi-million dollar contract it was our JUNIOR Senator Stennis who stepped in and got the contract signed. Does this look like SENIORITY paid off?
Congressman Smith of the Delta Dist. cooperates with the Administration and it seems he gets MORE of what he wants and less of what he DOES NOT want. Perhaps we would do better if we did cooperate and less fighting in our District. If you think so, write for me for Congress and let's try it. The Democratic Party has always been our BEST friend in the South. Let's try them again.

Supervisors' President R. C.
Hubbard, Jr., remarked this was the first complaint to come before the supervisors and recalled that the board had expressed its willingness to help the people with a full-page newspaper ad shortly after the site was selected. He noted many people are frightened when they have to deal with the government and do not dare stand up for their rights. He advised "political pressure" be exerted before going to court and incurring legal expenses.

Only note of discord during the session came after the election of a Negro to the land owners committee as Dr. Far-gason had suggested. Percy Per-ters was the one first named, then withdrew in favor of Aker. Another committee member declined to serve on this account and the chairman finally called for a standing vote on the matter. Only four stood in opposition.

At the committee's organizational session afterwards, Mc-Queen was named treasurer and fund raising was discussed. Attorney Ladner disputed the wisdom of stating "political pressure" would be used to secure relief, saying he understood the organization rather was seeking fair consideration for the property owners and their rights.
Isbell concurred its objective should be to make the government aware of the situation at the local level and to inform the people of their rights. He also expressed concern about asking people not to sign agreements since individuals might be satisfied with the price.

School Board...

(Cont. from Page 1.)

boys to put up the fight they did," Ortelle retorted. Powell suggested the courts might best decide about any injustices. Ladner commented that the board was to dictate curriculum, not grades, adding, "If a man is running the school, let him..."

After McCarty concluded
reading the minutes, Ortelle endeavored to explain the board's view, saying it felt the exams were given under duress. He said he was informed the two had driven on the campus in a noisy, profane manner and were drinking. "There were some other demonstrations," he added, citing that last Sunday night one teacher was stopped in his automobile by six men and beat up but it was not known who his assailants were. "I think it all had something to do with the examination."

"These two will have another opportunity for examination at the end of the summer, that is not a bad penalty," Ortelle continued.
He said the board felt the incident set the school back 10 years but that Harrell was far more pessimistic and felt it was retarded 20 years.

Powell voiced his concurrence with Ortelle's observations and added that after 20 years as a school teacher himself, he considered the first set of test papers a disgrace to the pupils and the teacher. The grades were 28 and 32. The second grade was 92 "which is a credit to any school..."

"Sillie" tells me they studied; they had 48 hours and if any boy made that grade on two days study he's the smartest I ever knew or he knew what the questions were going to be."
The father of one of the youths arose to protest that his son never drank and that allegation was without any merit. Pat Ladner, one of the two who did not graduate, said neither of them touched liquor and that they had Saturday and Sunday to study before the second examination. He drove a school bus during the term, he continued, and because of motor trouble did not get to the first period class "90 per cent of the time." Murphy suggested that if the youth knew his driver's job was interfering with his studies
he could have made it known.
McCarty, who has devoted much interest to improving the school transportation situation, took a dim view of the boy's remarks on motor trouble. Later McCarty pointed out that several months ago he objected to Pat Ladner's employment as a school bus operator and said that the boy burned a new motor up in about 30 days.

MISSISSIPPI'S SENIOR STATESMAN

Keep Colmer's Seniority and Know-how Working For Us and our continued Growth.

The development of our rivers, harbors, industrial canals, Federal facilities (Hancock County miscellaneous, Veterans Administration hospitals, Keosauqua Air Force Base), our shipbuilding, our seafood industry, waterworks, sewers, and other community facilities, our schools under the Impact Areas Act, needs an experienced and respected Representative in the Congress. Bill Colmer has demonstrated that he is such a Representative.

COLMER'S SENIORITY PAYS OFF

The following recent testimonial from President Fred Mayo of the Ingalls Shipbuilding Corp., Mississippi's largest industry, is just one of the hundreds of illustrations where Congressman Bill Colmer's seniority and know-how paid dividends to South Mississippi. "Thanks for your telegram reference Moore-McCormick vessels. We here at Ingalls want to express our deep appreciation of the support which you gave us in the determination by the Maritime Administration that Ingalls was the lowest responsive bidder. This means a great deal to Ingalls, our community, and the State of Mississippi. Thanks again."

BWYC 4th In Chapman Race

Gulfport Yacht Club was the annual Chapman Trophy Regatta over the weekend at Biloxi Yacht Club. Bay-Waveland finished fourth. Four races were sailed with six men per club sailing in each race.

Carl Marshall of BWYC claimed the only first place for the local club, winning the final race.

The Chapman Trophy, one of the most coveted trophies among sailors on the Mississippi Coast, is given by Henry Chapman of Bay St. Louis and his brother, Wallace Chapman of Biloxi, in memory of their father, Henry Chapman, who finished second in the third race for the local club.

Alfred Watts got the Bay team off to a good start with a second place in the first race Saturday and Basil Kennedy was third in the second. Biloxi and Gulfport, however, piled up more points on later finishers than did Bay-Waveland.

Commodore K. W. Pepperdine of Bay-Waveland, president of the Mississippi Coast Yachting Assn., presented trophies.

FAST-BALL PITCHER - Mayor John Scaife throws out the first ball to officially open the Bay Softball League season Monday night. City Commissioner Cyril Glover, with bat in hand, walked to the plate and hit a pitch from Mayor Scaife solidly back to the mound where the pitcher made a tremendous catch.

KCs, Realty Win Softball Openers

Kings of Columbus pitcher Rogers singled home Jimmy from second base with two outs in the last of the seventh to break a 3-3 tie and give the Bay KCs a 4-3 victory over the Bay KCs in the first game of Monday's Bay Softball League opening double-header. Southern Realty came from behind with five runs in the seventh to defeat Reinike's Dirt Dobbers 7-3 in the first game.

Kiln scored twice in the first inning on a homer by Arlison after C. J. Mouffray had singled with two out. The KCs scored in the last of the first when Arnold Scarborough doubled to leftfield and Blue McCaleb's grounder went through the Kiln shortstop.

Pitchers Rogers and Alton Ladner of Kiln settled down after the first inning, and with some sparkling fielding plays made on the part of both teams the game went scoreless until the final inning. Double plays erased Kiln threats in the second and fourth frames.

The KCs threatened to score in every inning, putting at least one man on base each time at bat, but they couldn't score, and Kiln added to their margin in the top of the seventh when with two down a single by Billy Sills and a double by C. J. Cameron, made the score 3-1.

In the last of the seventh with one out, a walk to Bernie Benigno and an error gave the KCs an opportunity and they promptly cashed it in. Ryan singled to rightfield scoring Benigno and Jimmy Chmiche followed with a single to left tying the score. After the second out, Rogers hit his single to left and Ryan barely beat the throw home with the winning run.

Rogers went all the way on the mound, allowing only six hits. At one stretch he retired ten straight. Kiln batters and got seven men in succession at another stretch. Alton Ladner was a hard-luck loser, giving up eight hits and walking two. Until the seventh, he hadn't allowed more than one hit in any inning. Farver Vernon was the losers' outstanding defensive player.

If the second game Monday was a thriller, the first was just as exciting. Southern Realty, playing without ace pitcher Don Caldwell, grabbed an early lead when with one out in the top of the first, a triple by W. J. Cameron and a single by Wilmer Seymour accounted for a run.

Reinike tied the score in the last of the first on consecutive singles by Bobby Fayard, Buddy Pittalo, and Gene Tarzetti. Realty took another brief lead in the fourth on James Glim's triple and a scoring fly off the bat of Jim Mayfield, but Reinike again evened the count in their half. Pittalo singled, Tarzetti was safe on an error, and Johnny McDonald reached on an error scoring a run.

The Dirt Dobbers went ahead in the fifth when Buck Kimball's liner to left bounced high over the head of Southern's Ronnie Peterson and Kimball circled the bases with a home run.

Southern Realty collected six hits to pull the game out of the fire in the seventh. Toy Tedford and Cecil Ladner hit infield singles and Bill Johnston, Realty manager who played in Caldwell's absence, came through with a solid single to left tying the score. Billy Rhodes scored Ladner on an outfield fly, Peterson

The Legionnaire's remarks were directed at a disturbance which marred the final minutes of the 12th grade graduation the preceding night when two seniors who had failed and an adult attempted to take over the program.

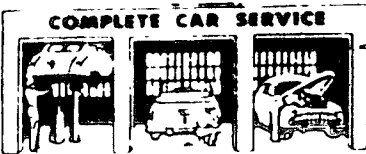

Citing what he called disrespect shown at that time for God, the U. S. flag, nation and way of life, Elliott said he "saw junior citizens... take the rough ways of improvement."

"We spend millions, even billions repelling communism from our shores. We sacrifice priceless lives of our fellow citizens, our families and our friends in the cause of freedom and democracy," he declared. Economic Common Sense

Educational circles were in a dither not so long ago when someone discovered that "Johnny can't read."

More recently researchers learned that Johnny's confused father can't figure. Any number of national surveys indicate that fathers and mothers are woefully ignorant of the functioning of the American free enterprise system—how it works, what makes it tick.

Every well informed person should know that profits and savings are essential to the American system. When businesses or individuals are over-taxed, there is little or no profits, and if no profit, there is nothing left to save. And savings are essential to finance an expanding economy.

Economic illiteracy in the USA is so prevalent and pronounced that teachers, writers, publishers, bankers, businessmen and civic leaders are being urged by the Committee for Economic Development to help create a better understanding of money. High schools are strategic to such a program, for only one college student in four takes economics courses.

Economic ignorance is also most evident in a government that has balanced its federal budget only six times in thirty-one years, a government that increases the national debt to pile up added burdens on the backs of rising generations.

Neither a government that spends beyond its income nor a person who lives beyond his means can escape the ultimate consequences of financial foolishness.

Mounting taxes, shrinking profits, the increasing cost of doing business, and the high cost of living make it difficult for one to save anything, but it is only through savings that reserves are accumulated to build and finance the American enterprise system. This is economic common sense.

Profits and savings are fundamental to the preservation of our kind of economy and to the perpetuation of our form of government.

American Capitalism and the American Republic that defends and sustains it cannot prosper without the savings of millions of striving, frugal workers who sacrifice something of their earnings to finance the future and provide for a more abundant life.
